Between Timid and Timbuktu

Mankind, ignorant to the truths that lie within every human being, looked outward — pushed ever outward. What mankind hoped to learn in its outward push is Who is actually in charge of the Universe, and what all creation is all about.

Mankind flung its advance agents ever outward, ever outward. Eventually, it flung them out into space, into the colorless, tasteless, weightless sea of outwardness without end.

It flung them like stones.

These unhappy agents found what had already been found in abundance on Earth — a nightmare of meaninglessness without end. The bounties of space, of infinite outwardness, were three: empty heroics, low comedy, and pointless death.

Outwardness lost, at last, its imagined attractiveness.

Only inwardness remained to be explored.

Only the human soul remained terra incognita.

This was the beginning of goodness and wisdom.

From Sirens of Titan by Kurt Vonnegut

All, All of a Piece

All, all of a piece throughout:
Thy chaste had a beast in view;
Thy wars brought nothing about;
Thy lovers were all untrue.
'Tis well an old age is out,
And time to begin a new.

From The Secular Masque by John Dryden

Plea for an Answer

One great step is over, and many of the golden gift years are gone, yet still a stranger to myself, I go on. So be my fate. Many people and times I've known will be gone from me without a trace.

I look into my future past. What is to become of my life? Where is the lighted way? May I find the answer some day. Tormented an I, for I have no idea which door will lead me to the highest sky. God, hear my cry: no more pain and wondering why. Each day I live, each day I die.

Bill Desmond

Reflections: Within and Beyond
Dedicated to John Sullivan

To write an essay in praise of Mr. John Sullivan's best qualities, keeping in style with the traditional yearbook dedication, would be a tremendous redundancy. For has not the senior class already completed this task for me? Surely their overwhelming vote for Mr. Sullivan is the true dedication, and this endeavor only the formality that follows.

There is, however, one of Mr. Sullivan's qualities which would best tie together all of our feelings for this remarkable teacher. I am sure the members of the senior class would all agree that there is something in his lectures, his discussions, and his classically witty personality which comes through to each individual student.

It is in this spirit that Mr. Sullivan's dedication is written, with the hope that as time flies past and we again read this dedication we will all reflect back on what Mr. Sullivan meant to each of us personally.

Thank you, Mr. Sullivan, for coming to Duxbury High School.

Count Each Moment

Time in my childhood slowly went by Waiting and wanting always the new
Now I look back and ask myself why
Time went faster the older I grew
Wondering alone and then I knew.
Time is infinite but not for me
Time won't stay still of willingly lent
If life is short so then it must be
I won't count the days and weeks I've spent
I have enough counting each moment.

Adele Boucher

I am a human being, and I am unique.
I laugh at love, I cry with love.
I am strongwilled, and I am frail.
I have reason, and I have affections.
I am lonely, and I desire solitude.
I understand, yet I cannot comprehend.

Andree LeBlanc

A light breeze rustles white blossoms, and plays over cool streams clear.
Cold steel like a twisted snake winds about this countryside, and,
upon these hard rails
glides Time, like a colossal steam engine.
Silently pursuing its continuous journey
it passes unnoticed.
A man with a long, flowing beard enjoys;
he sleeps,
he eats,
he wanders in this pleasant haven.
And then,
sans warning
He is a lonely figure on the cold, hard tracks
With Time behind him.

Will Buechler

What is time, but an invention of man
To keep him close to his own existence?
If time were no measure, how would man know
That his own life is short and inconsequential?
Except for those few who transcend their own time
And use well the world's tools, forever available.
Man is oblivious to the voids of the world
And seeks not true existence, but lives in true peace.

Andree LeBlanc

Her Smile

Lovers they had been a while
He puzzled by her laughter
And her smile.

Pouring out his heart, his thoughts
To her were known.
But though she smiled endlessly,
Her feelings never shone.

"Tell me why you smile so,
And what that smile means.
Is it because you love me so?"

"Can you hold back the waves of Time's deep sea and forever
Be with me?"

Not a word did she say
Not a sound she made.
But when he kissed
Those smiling lips,
A taste of salt there laid.

Lisa Mastrogiovanni

Will You Remember?

Once I was a soldier
And fought on foreign sands
for you.

Once I was a hunter and Brought home fresh meat
for you.

Once I was a lover and Searched behind your eyes
for you.

And though you may forget
All our rubbish dreams,
I find myself searching through
The ashes of our ruins for
The time when we smiled and
The hours that ran wild with
The magic of our eyes and
The silence of our world.

But soon there'll be another
To tell you I was just a lie.
I find myself wondering,
Will you ever remember?

Josh Hughes

I remember sunsets sitting on my lap
And their shadows fingering through my mind.
But now I am frozen,
I am feeling the blackbirds
Silhouetted in the empty trees above me,
Where the sunset's grasp reaches out,
Bluntly coloring only the high, green tops.
Yet I lie knowing
That I have given birth to my son, to myself,
To he who will roam with the opening buds
On the ends of the empty limbs.
And so, as I lie,
Withered and resigned,
There is satisfaction in my soul,
Yet having given in,
Acceptance was my final role.

Libby Creelman

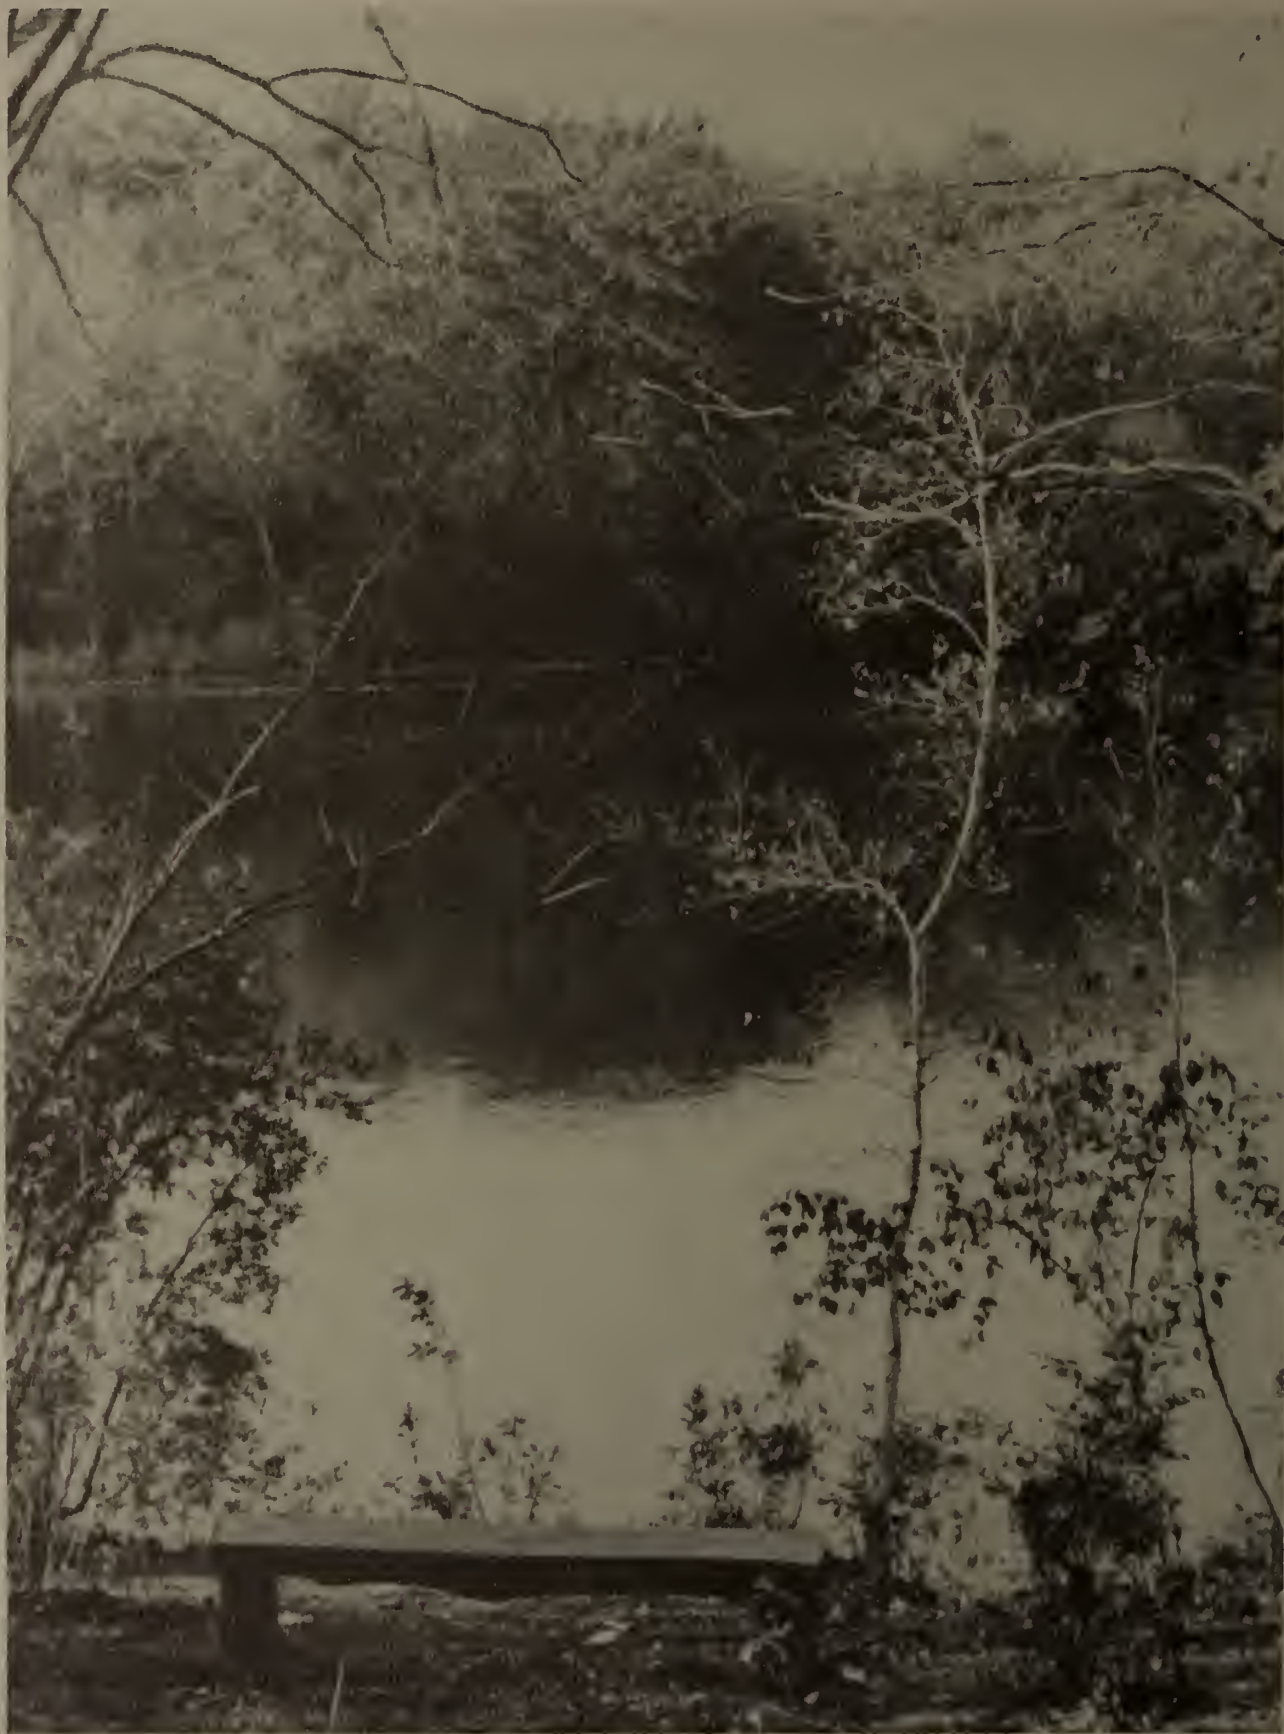

Frailty, thy name is man, not woman. Who else is it who must succumb to his desires for sport? And who else is allowed to slack his duties, breeding no dishonor? The world knows that man is an animal, but must he have manners like the base creatures of the darkest earth? Since the very beginning of mankind, the male has been justified in his actions; "Well, that's all part of progress," or "That's how God made man," While women, who are logical and practical in their emotions, are considered inconsistent and insensible in their actions. A woman is suppressed and is expected to be self restrained. well, "... have we not affections? desires for sport? and frailty, as men have? Then let them use us well, else let them know: The ills we do, their ills instruct us so."

Andree LeBlanc

A Picture

Still life taught a man's dreams
To Dance
Dance to musical arms, fingers straining for notes
While his notes hammer flesh into bone.
Bone
A man's waxen product
Silver stardust
Will capture Has captured
A woman's unpainted legs.
Bathing in still life
Has allowed droplets of sweat to capture his heart
Has allowed a tongue of need to capture
Pictures of legs
Still life bathes Still life cleanses
A woman's limbs

Fear not the frightful darkness
But seek to know its light.
Worship not the day's brightness
But seek to understand its purpose.

Trish Mastendino

Many are the times I find myself silent
Wishing that if I spoke someone might hear.
Many are the days I find myself alone
Walking amidst a crowd of solitary people.
Many will be the years when I will find myself thinking
Of how many times I had closed my eyes.

Trish Mastendino

I
Shudder, shake,
And laugh to hold
The earth between my arms.

Split Second Years

In the clocks is our future,
In the clocks is our past,
In the clocks moves the present,
Fleeting so fast.

Though we hate to admit it
The ubiquitous chime
Is telling us all that
There just is not time.

No time for spring days,
No time to dream,
No time for living:
We must fit the scheme.

The clocks give our schedule
In brief terms of time
Disguising the years gone
So no one will mind.

Though few ever see
How fast we are old.
All things considered,
Better not to be told.

John Thompson

Tin Mushrooms — Bronze Toadstools

Golden men live inside tin mushrooms where they spin a world women cannot knock
A room where chains are made of flesh. A room where lamps are 14 carats Silver women live inside bronze toadstools where they knit mittens men will never wear.

They own furniture. They own stolen lamps.
Upon meeting they learn silver and gold can mix.
But they only steal furniture, furniture is a necessity
Gold men steal silver lamps
Silver women continue to steal priceless carats.

Viveca Carroll

Reveal yourself, all-powerful phantom.
Beware, I am Time.

David Barlow

The bell rang.
The keepers went
Mechanically from door to door.
They opened our cages.
At a signal
From the leader
They encircled us.
"Eat," they said, as
They pushed it towards us.
"Food for thought."
"We are not hungry.
Stop!", we cried.
But they would not
Hear us.

Trish Mastendino

And an astronomer said, Master, what of Time?

And he answered:

You would measure time the measureless and the immeasurable.

You would adjust your conduct and even direct the course of your spirit according to hours and seasons.

Of time you would make a stream upon whose bank you would sit and watch its flowing.

Yet the timelessness in you is aware of life's timelessness,

And knows that yesterday is but as memory and tomorrow is today's dream.

And that that which sings and contemplates in you is still dwelling within the bounds of that first moment which scattered the stars into space.

Who among you does not feel that his power to love is boundless?

And yet who does not feel that very love, though boundless, encompassed within the center of his being, and moving not from love thought to love thought, nor from love deeds to other love deeds?

And is it not time even as love is, undivided and paceless?

But if in your thought you must measure time into seasons, let each season encircle all the other seasons,

And let today embrace the past with remembrance and the future with longing.

Kahlil Gibran

In Memoriam

Leslie Allen Borgatti

Life: Time . . . or . . . Love and Beauty; decay, death, aging – all results of Time or is Time merely their measure?
is cheating Time of these actions a crime or a misunderstood pleasure?

Revelation

No more my heart shall sob or grieve.
My days and nights dissolve in God's own Light.
Above the toil of my life, my soul
Is a Bird of Fire winging the Infinite.

I have known the One and His Secret Play;
And passed beyond the sea of Ignorance – Dream,
In tune with Him I sport and sing,
I own the Golden Eye of the Supreme.

Drunk deep of Immortality,
I am the root and boughs of a teeming vast.
My form I have known, and realized,
The Supreme and I are One – all we outlast.

D.H.S. Homecoming, 1974

This year's Homecoming uncovered an especially spirited group of students. Activities began with a pep-rally on Friday night, featuring enthusiastic game competitions between the classes. Large numbers appeared to cheer their class on to the title of "Most Spirited". This was especially emphasized in the pie-eating contest and the tug-of-war. The class of 1976 won the title.

Saturday's activities began with the Homecoming parade. Lead by the D.H.S. band and met with a beautiful fall day, the parade was a success. The class of 1977 came out with the $25 prize with "Crush Clippers" in the float competition.

The game against Norwell was a loss for the Dragons, but was, nevertheless, a well-played game with a lot of spirit.

The activities ended with a Homecoming dance, which succeeded in furthering the school's spirit.

The Homecoming Queen, announced at the pep-rally on Friday night was Kelly Byrne. Her court consisted of Pat Sullivan, Beth Marconi, and Cecilia Dimuzzio.

A special thanks to this year's committee: Delores Goodyear, Kathy Grealy, Wendy Pierce, Carla Murphy, and Regina Powers.

What a Smile Can Do

By Anke Wetzel

It makes your dark minutes light
it makes your evenings bright
It makes a song of a sigh
it makes joy of a cry
It makes smiles out of tears
it makes applause out of jeers
It makes sunshine of clouds
it makes hopes out of doubts
It makes enemies friends
it connects all the lands
It makes a cold winters warm
it makes a dungeon a dorm
It makes the hopeless believe it gives the worried relief
It makes a strange house a home
it makes a chapel a dome
It makes you understand and reach out your hand

Anke, our A.F.S. student from Germany has added a bit of sunshine to the halls of DHS this year. You can recognize her by her constant smile and glow which reaches all of those near to her. We will all miss her but thank her for the touch of Europe she has brought here and hope that she brings part of Duxbury back with her to Germany.

TRACK

Are you kidding me? Last years track team, under the illustrious coaching of Reggie Clark, was a gas! I mean like, wow! You couldn't get classier! Of course, the Juniors, (this years seniors), were the effective stimulus of all this. We had guys like long-legged Pitts on the high jump; Bill Desmond, our 440 man; Marty Earl, jogging the 2-mile; Chris Noon doing all kinds of things — the longjump, the triple jump, the mile, and 880; Willy Buichler, hacking the pole vault; and Richard Aldrich, who walked the 880. Actually Rich, you're all right.

Of the sophomores and freshman on the team we have to say something. Some of the prominent ones were: Pat Carroll, our miler; Glen Mitchell, another 2-miler; and Andy Bolster, who shot the shotput, jumped the high jump, and ran the 880.

Last, but not least, is Coach Clark. He put in lots of work. In fact, he ran every mile with us, even though he couldn't keep up!

GIRLS' TENNIS

Winning eleven out of twelve matches, the Girls Tennis Team was defending their South Shore League Championship for the second season.

The team effort and spirit, lead by Co-Captains Holly Pierce and Kathy Burke, produced great enthusiasm. They were able to keep the team together and bring them up in times of depression.

An important factor in their winning streak was the excellent health condition, which enabled them to outlast the other teams they played. This was due to running stairlaps and ten minute runs around the track. The girls did this with reluctance but found it helped in the long run!

Despite weather frequently cold and rainy, the girls did show great endurance. Many of the matches were played in drizzle or threatening clouds.

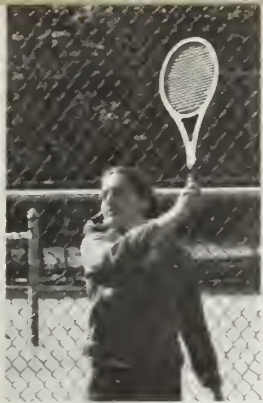

The season ended with a great victory, and the girls returning are eager to defend their standing for the third year.

BOY'S TENNIS

Last year the Boys' Tennis Team's record was 8-3. They had a fairly good season, considering that there were a few injuries. Duxbury had an outstanding victory in Cohasset's first loss in several years. In fact, one of Cohasset's players was so upset that he walked off the court and quit. The team had won the match 3-2. This year's team will consist of Seniors, Scott Rich, Colin Dalhen, Steve Tenny; Juniors, Bob Hutchinson, Ernie Freeberg, Greg Sabraccia; Sophomore, Will Hearn; and Freshman, Peter Dewire.

SOFTBALL

The 1974 Softball team welcomed a new coach, Miss Patricia Shea. With only two seniors, the team was inexperienced, yet very energetic. One of the most exciting games of the season was played at East Bridgewater, where the teams were forced into extra innings. Although the Dragons lost, they made a great showing against a league-leading East Bridgewater team.

The team combined hard work with the necessary amount of pleasure to create a season filled with victories as well as fun. On one sweltering day in May, Coach Shea consented to a practice on the beach. The punishment for every defensive mistake was a dunking in the ocean, and after the long practice in the hot sun, this was a blessing.

The spirit of the team, lead by Co-Captains Debbie Canty and Eileen Grealy, brought the Dragons into place with a record of 8-7. The biggest surprise of the season was freshman pitcher, Gail McCallum, who had a tremendous season. She was voted the most valuable player by her team mates, and should be a great asset to her team in the coming years. For first time the South Shore League formed a Girls' Softball All-Star Team. Duxbury was represented by two members — third baseman, Kim McCallum and Pitcher, Gail McCallum.

With all but two members returning to the team for next year, the girls hope to recapture the South Shore League Championship.

GOLF

The 1974 D.H.S. golf team, Coached by Bob Hayes and Captained by Senior Rick Kendrew, amassed an undefeated record in league play and finished with an 18-1 overall record. The team's most heralded victory was a 5½ to 3½ win over Tabor Academy, the only team which has given Duxbury difficulty throughout the previous three seasons. In league play Duxbury easily thrashed all rival opponents and won their twelfth straight S.S.L. Title. This placed the team in the state tournament. But the team failed to qualify for the finals. Over the last three years the team has compiled an overall 54-3 record and has gone to the States all three years.

This year the Dragons have much more depth than in previous years and should do fairly well in the state tournament. The Dragons will be led by five three-year lettermen: Seniors Brandt Cline, Paul Ayres, Dave Hilliard, Dave Brown, and Phil Carrigan.

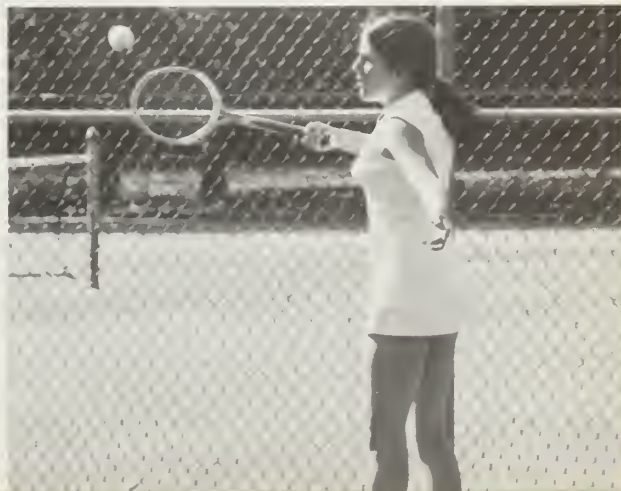

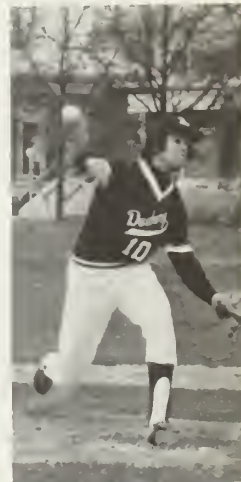

BASEBALL

Duxbury finished the 1974 season with record 7-7, maintaining their record of no losing season since 1967. The team consisted of an exceptional group of juniors and a capable squad of sophomores.

The biggest game of the year was the last, against Hull. Having previously beaten Duxbury, the team had an over confident attitude and left the field with a crushing defeat of 12-2.

Duxbury's spirit and sportsmanship may be practically attributed to the devotion and skill of Coach Dave Murphy. However, the devotion of the team throughout the season proved to be an important factor in their successes, as when catcher Scott Wyman broke his tooth, but continued to play in the game. The excellent pitching of Arthur Colvin assured the team of a victory at the Hull game. Coach Murphy was also proud of his squad of sophomores, this year's returning juniors, Todd Desmarais, Jeff Bailey, Steve Andrews, and Tim Barclay.

Duxbury had an exceptional season, moving into position as Eastern Mass. Soccer Champs. Starting the season with one win and four losses, the Dragons came back with determination and 13 consecutive wins.

During the regular playing season, Duxbury's rival, Hanover, slipped into the #1 slot in the league standings. Although Hanover was the victor of their first confrontation with Duxbury, in the second they were the vanquished. Throughout the season, the team had the undimishing support of the fans.

Upon entering the Mass. Semifinals, Duxbury beat both Foxboro and Nauset with scores of 2-1. As expected, Hanover moved up with Duxbury to the battle for the championship. By this time, the name of the notorious Julio Costellanos was the topic of many discussions. A record number of spectator buses went to Boston to watch the game. Once again, the Dragons were victorious with a 2-0 win for Duxbury's 13th consecutive victory. In the Mass. Champ. final, Duxbury lost to Monument Mountain Reg. High School, but the fans still flocked onto the field, cheering and proud to be Eastern Mass. Champs. It was truly a season coached and played with excellence.

FOOTBALL

The 1974 Varsity Football Team, Coached by Bill Pagnano and Don Dollorca, started the season in a rebuilding trend. But victories over Provincetown and Holbrook seemed to indicate that it would be a victorious year. However, the next six league games met defeat. Morale at practices became low. Nevertheless, the team overcame this low point with the strong leadership of Captains David Barlow and Steve Haskell in the final Thanksgiving victory over Cohasset.

Many spectators were frustrated with the performance of the team. Yet, there were some good showings, one of which occurred in Middleboro. Duxbury was behind in the score, yet ahead on the field, making this the team's best performance of the year. Contributing to the success of the team were Bruce Lillie and Steven Haskell, both South Shore League All-Stars. The season ended with a final standing of 4-6 in the South Shore League. Duxbury's second best showing in its football history. With only six Seniors leaving and eleven Juniors starting the returning season, next year's season looks promising.

This year, for the first time there was a field hockey Championship for Eastern Mass. Although Duxbury did not qualify to play in the tournament, they did have two members elected to the South Shore League all-star team: Senior Left Half-Back, Karen Brodie and Junior Left Fullback, Lederle Tenney. Following the tradition of the team, the girls elected a most valuable player: Senior Half Back Karen Brodie, who will keep the team's mascot-Dragon, "Desire" until the beginning of next season.

FIELD HOCKEY

The 1974 field hockey team, unlike last year's team, was not a championship team. Although there were many victories throughout the season, they were often not evident in the outcome of the score. After one game, in which the Dragons tied Cohasset, Coach Brooks became so enthusiastic that while literally "jumping for joy," she injured her leg, and remained on crutches for the better part of the season.

This year's team was young and inexperienced, but under the leadership of Coach Brooks and of Tri-Captains Karen Brodie, Lynda Neubauer, and Lederle Tenney, the younger members acquired the sense of pride and tradition that goes along with being a member of the girls' field hockey team in Duxbury High School.

CROSS COUNTRY

Craig Bloodgood, possibly the most outstanding runner Duxbury Cross Country has ever seen, came to Duxbury this year bringing the promise of victory to the team and a threat to Marty Earl.

Bloodgood is truly a great runner, winning all but two races. Due to his tremendous success, Tri-Captain Marty Earl remained number two man, running very consistently and continuously, but only breaking his own records. Marty has proved to be a definite asset to the team's success for the past three years. Late in the season Marty's position was threatened again and again by sophomore Glen Mitchell, a truly dedicated runner. We are all looking forward to Glen's performances in the two mile this spring.

Perhaps a running team's best strength lies in its depth. Due to Tri-Captain Richard Aldrich, Chris Noon — both veterans and excellent runners — and also freshman Paul Bloodgood, we were able to count on strong performances behind the leaders, who won the places which insured victory when it was in-store.

Due to the hard work of Coach Clark and a lot of work by the runners, Duxbury managed to finish its most successful season with a record of 3-5.

TURKEY TROT

The Bloodgood family had a free and especially tasty turkey on Thanksgiving Day this year. The source of that turkey was junior Craig Bloodgood's victory in Duxbury's First Annual Turkey Trot, a cross country race from the High School to the far end of the Powder Point Bridge and back to the starting point, a distance of four miles. Bloodgood came in first in a field of about 40 runners.

The "trot" was open to anyone with the spirit, or appetite, as the case may have been. It attracted both males and females, Students, Faculty, and townspeople. There were those who had been running daily, and those who stopped working their lawns just long enough to race past some of Duxbury's best late autumn scenery.

We look forward to the next running of this event.

Soccer; Eastern Massachusetts Champions

During the eight exhilarating days of November as the soccer team was winning the school's first Eastern Massachusetts Championship, D.H.S. more excited and enthusiastic than it has been for many years. Following ten straight league wins qualifying Duxbury for the league tournament, the Dragons defeated Foxboro in the first tourney game 2-1 on Ed Vicker's goal in the last six minutes of the game. At Boston University Field, the Dragons then faced Nauset, with a good crowd from Duxbury on hand. The game was decided on penalty kicks with Duxbury prevailing 2-1 with scores by John Thompson and Steve Andrews. Once again, Sophomore Bill Thompson was outstanding in the goal.

The following Wednesday, in front of a crowd of 4,000 people, Duxbury scored two first period goals, by George Arnold and Ed Wickers, to defeat rival Hanover 2-0 and to gain the championship. As the game ended, hundreds of jubilant fans poured from the stands as co-captains Ed Vickers, John Otsuki and Don Anderson with coach Foster Cass received the Eastern Massachusetts Championship Plaque from the tournament director.

In January, the town honored the 25 boys of the soccer team with jackets and a banquet for their accomplishments of the season. Mr. George Teravanien and Mr. Jerome Dewing organized the affair which featured a speech by Mr. Cass about the players, and also, the awarding of the jackets.

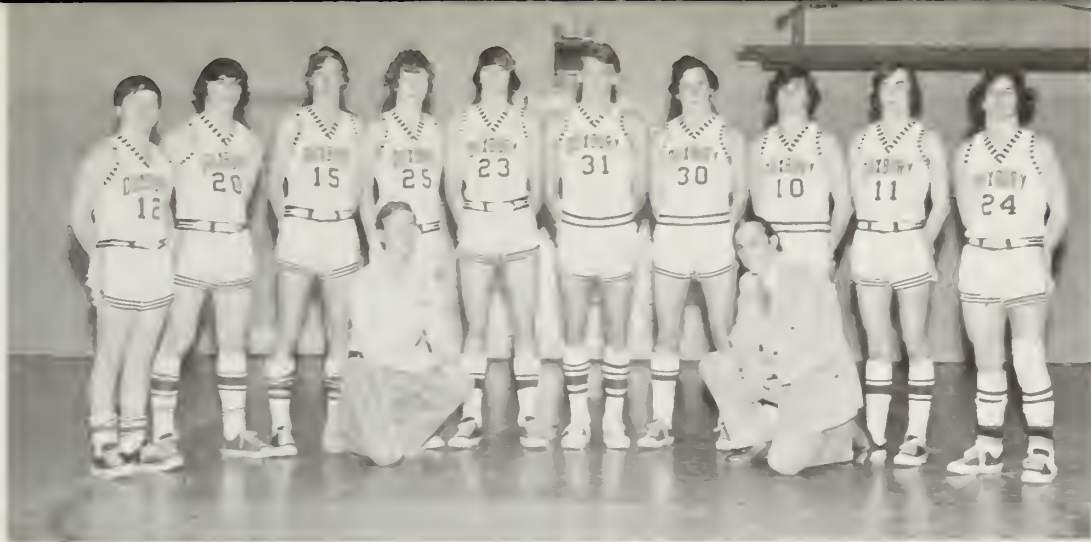

Girls' Varsity Basketball Team

Varsity Ice Hockey Team

Varsity Wrestling Team

Boy's Varsity Basketball Team

Girl's Gymnastic Team

Girls' Varsity Basketball

Although the record of this year's Girls' Varsity Basketball team was not as outstanding as it should have been, the spirit and enthusiasm of the girls inspired them to progress even through the agony of defeat. Seniors on this year's team were co-captains Karen McCartbur and Kathy Burke, Maura Connolly, and Cathy McCall; Juniors Karen Roberts, Judy Mitchell, and Robin Blackford; Sophomores Donna Doane, Susan Shaeffer, Gail Sanders and Gail MacCallum. The Managers were Melinda Severson and Cathy Greely. There were no designated starters on this year's team due to the over-abundance of skill which the team displayed.

The girls shared many experiences throughout the season which brought them close together. One most outstanding game was with East Bridgewater in which all of the players had a fantastic game. The clock ticked away with only minutes left and the scoreboard read 38-40, Duxbury was in the lead. East Bridgewater could not break our tremendous defense. Our biggest rival was Hanover whom we held to two points in the end of the first quarter. Prospects for next year's team look promising.

Boys' Varsity Basketball

The 1974-1975 Boy's Varsity Basketball team endured another discouraging season. Even though their record didn't show it, the team was into every game and lost a good amount of them only in the closing seconds. Duxbury finished in the middle of the South Shore League standings, which is quite an improvement over last year. The team had many opportunities to beat the top teams, such as a strong lead over league-leading Abington, but once again lost in the end. It is unfortunate that next year's team will lose some of their valuable talents in co-captains Ed Vickers and Phil Carignan, along with Matt Brady, Arthur Colvin, and Joe McCarthy. Next year's season looks promising with the return of Steve Case, Chip Heckman, Pat Carroll, Scott Brown, Bill Wilcox, and a solid J.V. team.

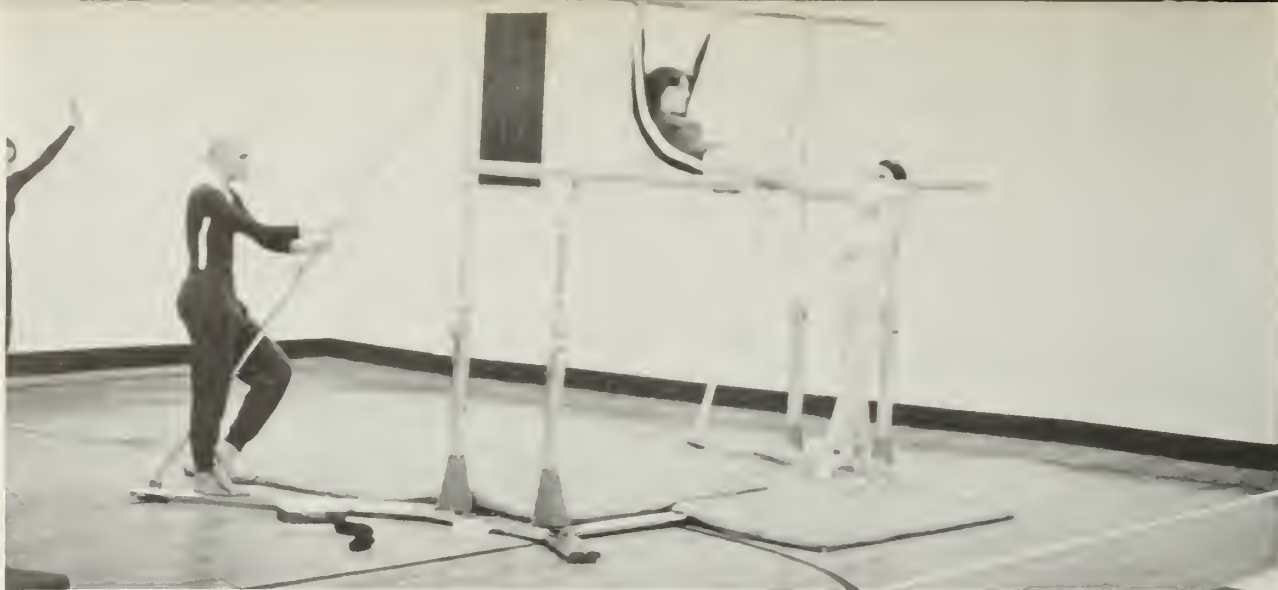

Gymnastics

Duxbury saw its first season of girl's gymnastics this year. The girls worked five days a week from November to February and improved steadily throughout the season. Though they were victorious at only one meet, they tried hard, built up valuable experience, and kept their spirits high.

Under the direction of coach Penny Patenaude, and along with the efforts of Mr. Teravanien, morale booster Mrs. T., (who supplied us with strength-building oranges during those tough meets) and all the girls — Olga Korbut, watch out!

Boys' Varsity Ice Hockey

Led by six seniors, this year's ice hockey team has proved to be one of the top contenders of the South Shore League. The seniors contributed co-captains John Otsuki, Steve Tenney, and David Kennison. Seniors forwards Doug Bartlett, Larry Maddock, and Peter Shepard also helped in leading the team. The team had lost only two seniors from last year's team, and thus played a successful season.

Wrestling

This year, Duxbury's wrestling team had its best season in its history. Coach William Barges, with his great dedication to the sport, has succeeded in building this team almost from scratch. Four years ago the wrestling team achieved a record of 3-10, and has had a winning record since then. This year's league record was 9-2-1.

Co-captains for this year's team were Donald Pierce and Robbie Ferguson. The other seniors for the 1974-1975 season were Steve Haskell, Bruce Pitts, Kevin Hubbard, and Kevin Barclay.

An outstanding achievement was the team's defeat of Scituate, at 30-27. Scituate being a team that finished fifth in the State Tournament last year. Another highlight was an exciting victory over the perennial power of Needham High, 39-17.

Band

The D.H.S. band has greatly helped our teams and did a good job of warming up the fans in the stands. They have worked very hard at instituting new kinds of music and different steps into their marching performance. Led by Arthur Johnson, they have improved significantly this year, and are a great asset to the school's spirit.

Majorettes

This year, the Duxbury Majorettes were led by head majorette Debbie Caleski and her alternate Norma Turrell. The other girls were Gretchen Shomberg, Karen Williams, Michelle Donheny, Eileen Doshier, and Cheryl Conroy. These girls participated at all the football games, the Homecoming parade, and in competitive performances. They led the band with twirling flags and batons. The hard work and practice put in by these girls has helped our teams toward winning.

How long has it been since the present seemed like forever? Why, we must all have been just children, innocent children not realizing that the future, myth of man's mind, was nothing more than a rearrangement of the past. And the past was nothing more than a dilating plague: History.

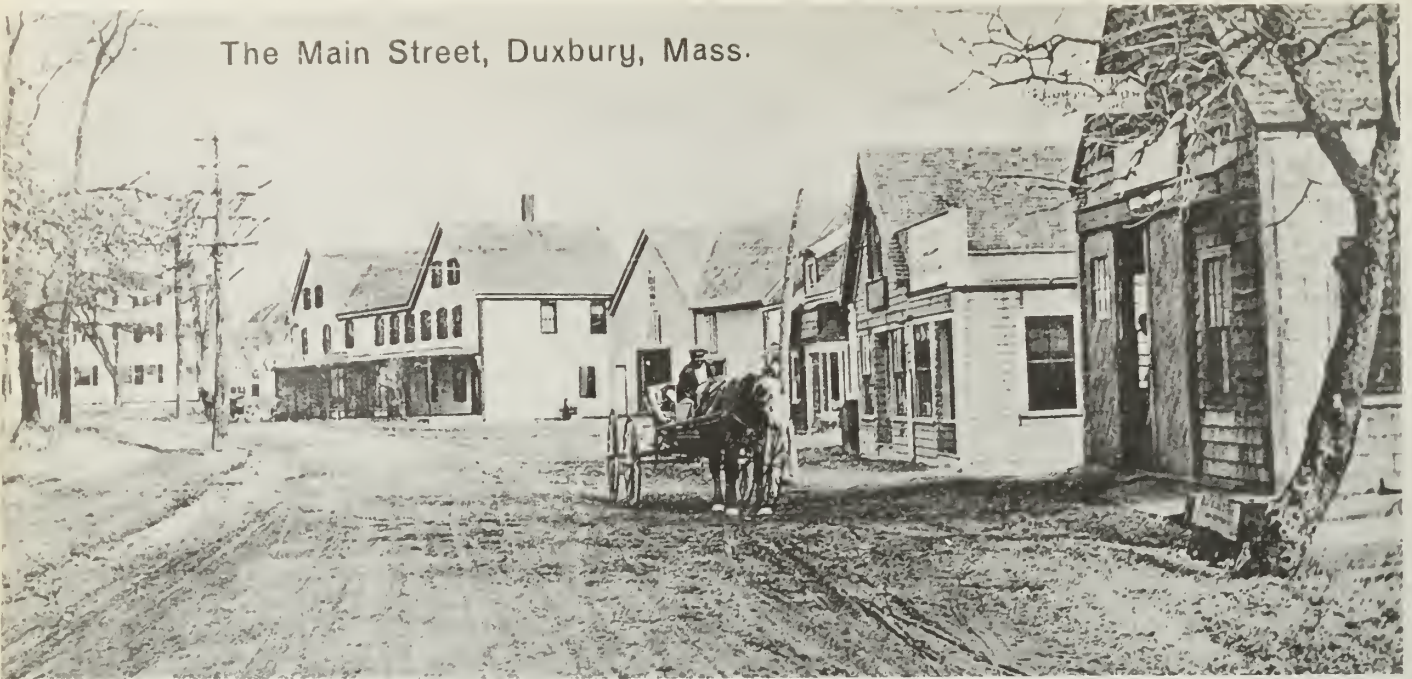

Yes, it is you, History, who devours the little specks of present,
Producing more History, more evil doers, time eaters!
When will it all end?
The present seems only an illusion
And the future is without a friend.

The Main Street, Duxbury, Mass.

Half 3 Corner, South Duxbury, Mass.

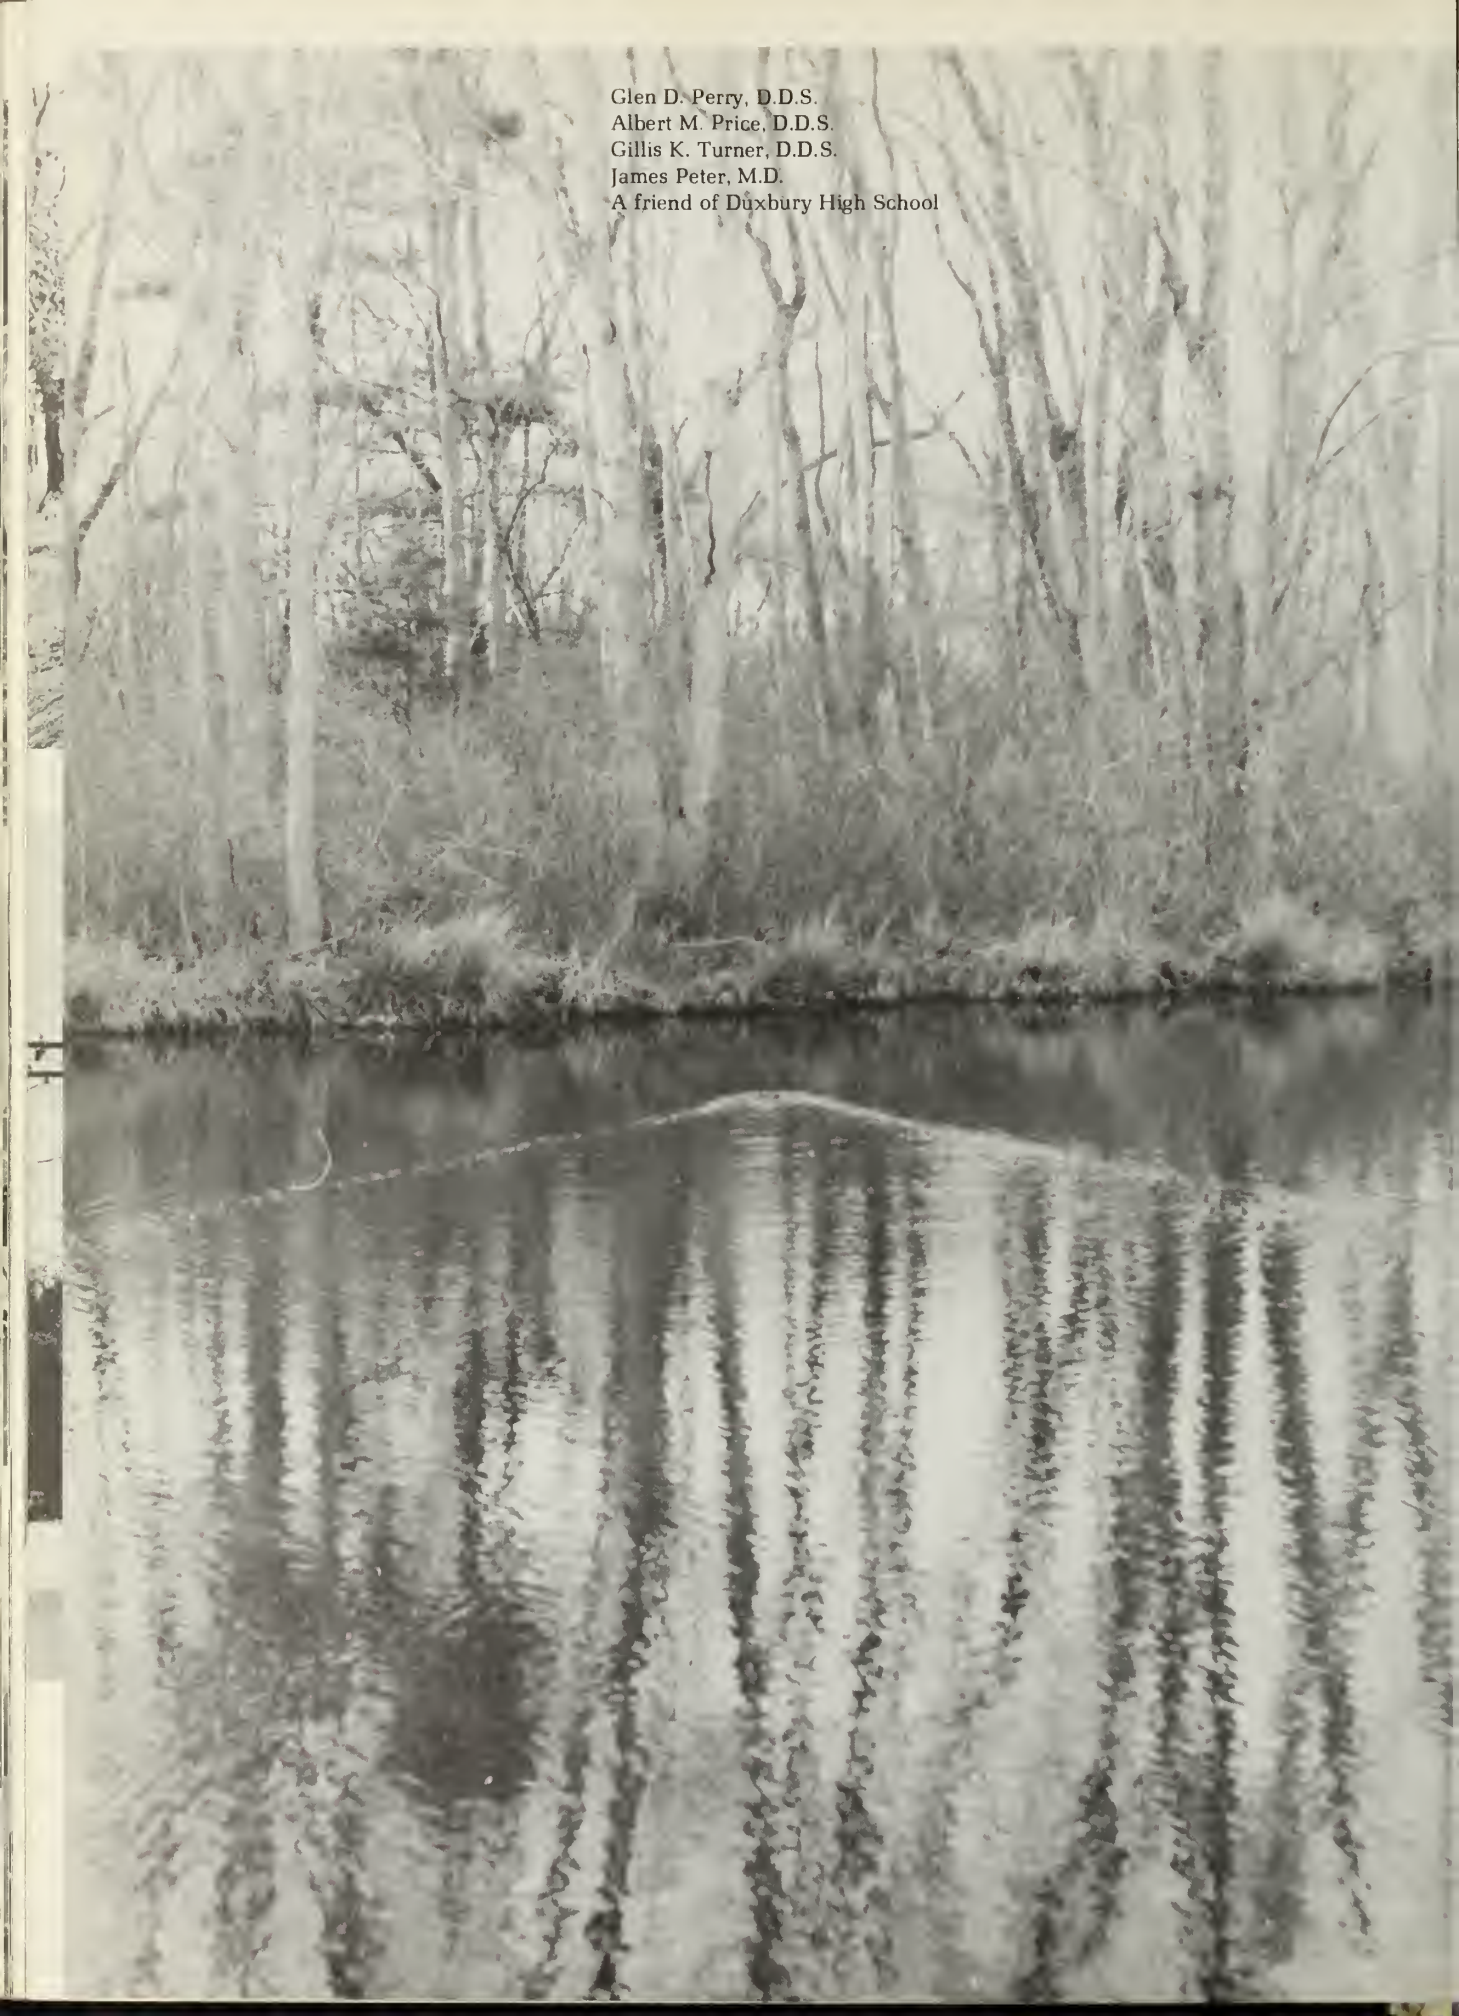

But surely you do not take my motives to be morbid. I am condemning nothing and perhaps you have already seen through the veil of my poetry. If not, I entreat you to read between the lines.

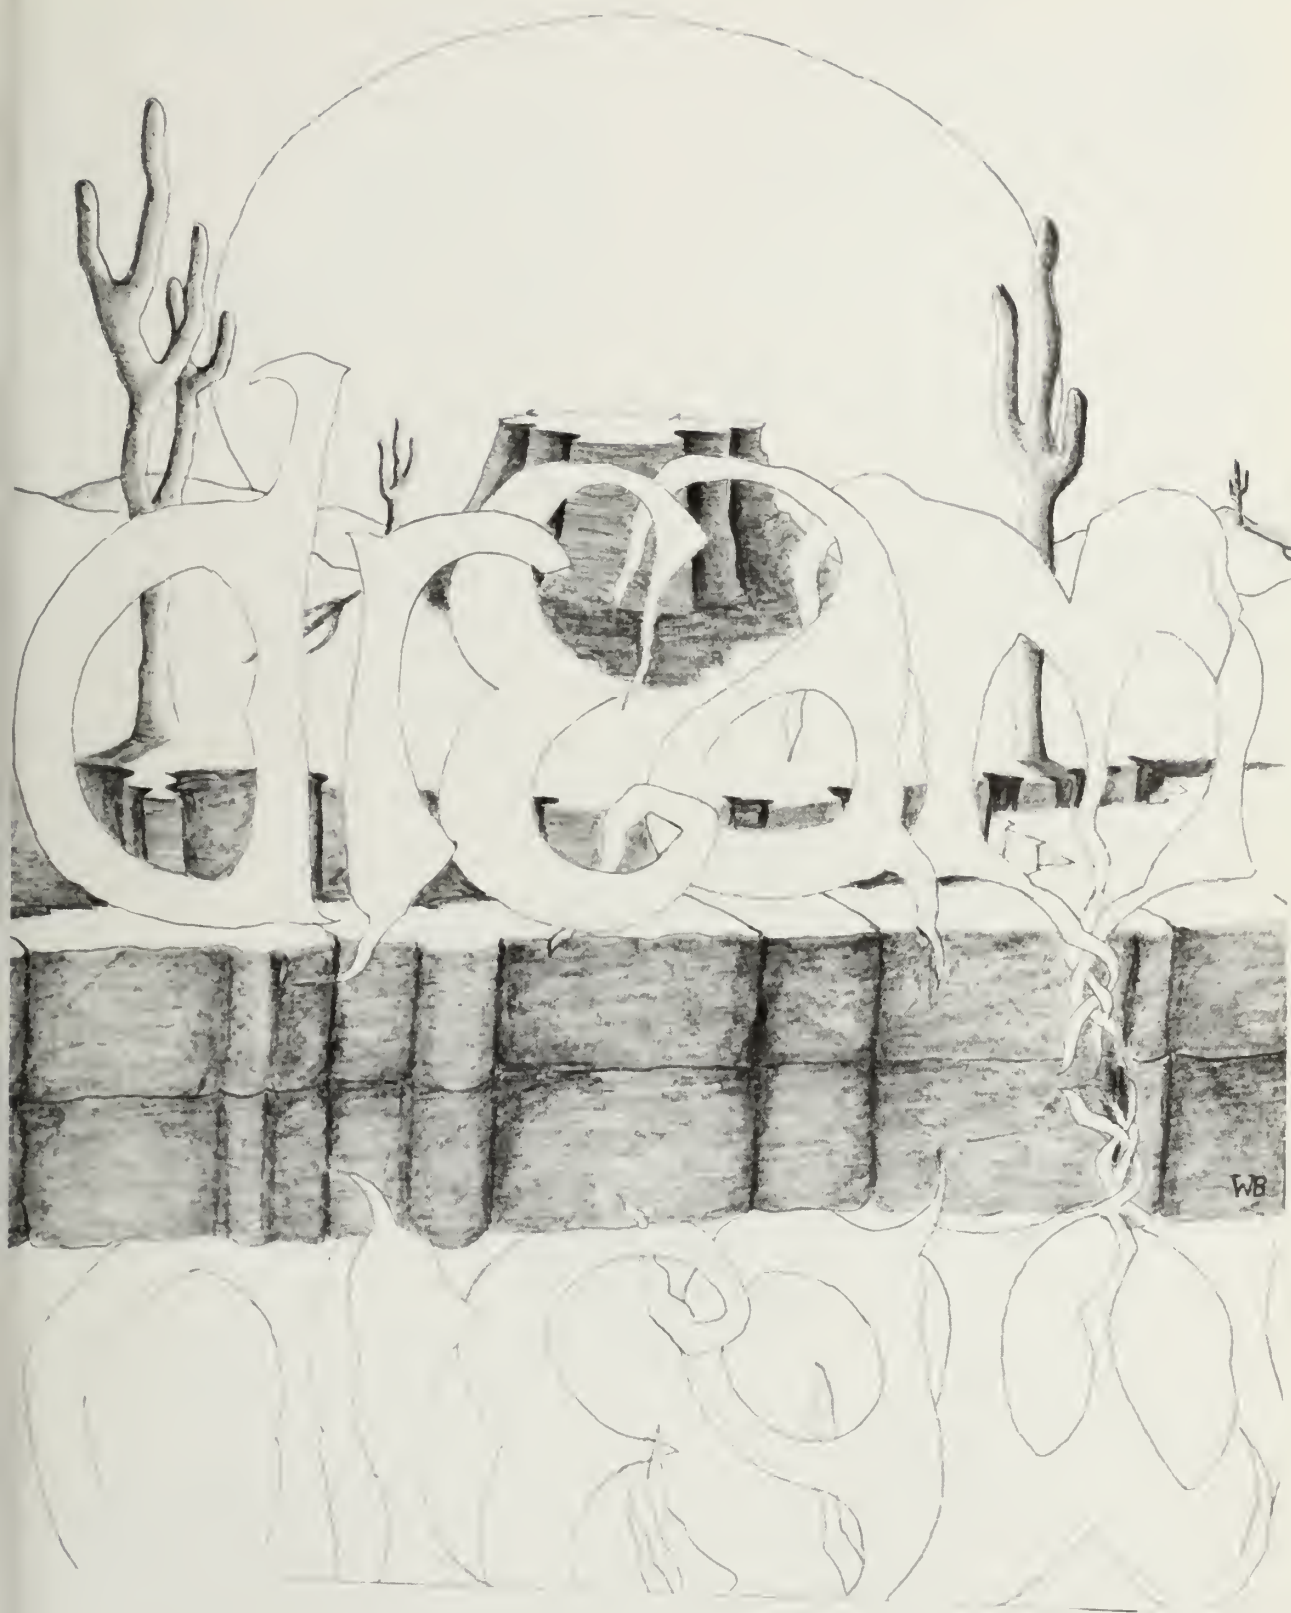

The discovery of time being awaits us all.
